CORRALLING THE COWBOYS

On Thursday, Nov. 19, the ninth-ranked Byrd Yellow Jackets will try to corral the Southwood Cowboys in the 2020 regular season finale at Lee Hedges Stadium. Kickoff between the two crosstown rivals is set for 7 p.m., and Southwood is the home team.

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT THE TEAMS

The Byrd Yellow Jackets own a 7-0 overall record and a 5-0 record in District 1-5A. With their 28-7 win over the Captain Shreve Gators in the 43rd Annual Backyard Brawl, the Byrd Yellow Jackets secured at least a share of the District 1-5A title. It's the Jackets' first district championship since 2015, and the sixth for head coach Mike Suggs. The Southwood Cowboys own a 1-4 overall record and a 0-3 record in District 1-5A. Southwood's lone win came via forfeit by Northwood. The Cowboys lost 49-27 at Parkway last Thursday.

LAST TIME OUT

The ninth-ranked Byrd Yellow Jackets defeated the Captain Shreve Gators 28-7 in the 43rd annual "Backyard Brawl" last Thursday at Independence Stadium. With the game tied 7-7 at halftime, Byrd used three second half rushing touchdowns, including a 50-yard scamper on a reverse by receiver Kellum Humphrey, to defeat Shreve 28-7. The Parkway Panthers steamrolled the Southwood Cowboys, 49-27, at Preston Crownover Stadium last Thursday. The Panthers' offense collected 426 yards of total offense against the Cowboys. Southwood quarterback Devin Williams rushed for 150 yards and three touchdowns before leaving the game with an injury.

THE SERIES

This will be the 49th meeting between the Byrd Yellow Jackets and the Southwood Cowboys in a series that dates back to 1970. The Jackets lead the overall series 31-17. This has been a series of streaks as Byrd won the first four meetings, then Southwood won 15 of the next 16. The Yellow Jackets have won 25 of the last 27 games since 1992, including a string of 12 straight at one point. In 2019, Byrd shut out Southwood 41-0, marking the sixth time the Jackets have shutout the Cowboys in this series. Southwood has shut out Byrd only once, 27-0, in 1975. In 1988, Byrd surrendered the most points in school history suffering a 70-6 loss to Southwood. Last year, Byrd's offense equaled their season high of five rushing touchdowns as the Jackets cruised to a 44-6 victory over the Cowboys.

THE COACHES

Mike Suggs is in his 23rd season as the head coach at C.E. Byrd. Suggs, who is the school's all-time winningest coach, owns a 164-88 (.651) record as the top Jacket. After guiding Byrd to the Division I title game in 2013, Suggs was named the 2013 Class 5A Coach of Year by the La. Football Coaches Association. An All-State end for the Southwood Cowboys in 1980, he went on to play receiver at Northeast Louisiana University, now ULM. After two years as an assistant at Southwood, he came to Byrd in 1990 as an assistant. In 1998, Suggs replaced Alan Carter to become the 20th head coach in school history. Southwood is coached by Dean Smith, who is in his first season with the Cowboys. Smith came to Southwood from Wossman, where he spent six seasons as the Wildcats' head coach. A Ouachita High and Northwestern State graduate, the 37-year-old Smith coached under Pat Collins at Ouachita before moving over to Wossman. He had just one losing season at Wossman (2-8 in 2017) while his 2016 team was 7-3. The Wildcats finished 5-5 during the past two regular seasons, and his 2019 team defeated Northwood 43-30 during the season.

THE SUGGS STORY

For over two decades Mike Suggs has been the head coach of the C.E. Byrd Yellow Jackets. By far the longest tenured coach in the 116-year history of Shreveport-Byrd Yellow Jackets football, Suggs is also the winningest in program history with a record of 164-88 (.651).

The Shreveport native was an All-State end at Southwood High School during some of the greatest years in Cowboys football history. His gridiron talents carried him on to Northeast Louisiana University, now the University of Louisiana Monroe, where he played wide receiver playing for ULM Hall-of-Fame coach Pat Collins. After his playing days, Suggs became a graduate assistant on Collins' staff. In 1987, ULM won the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship with a national-best 13-2 record.

In 1988, he returned to Shreveport and his high school alma mater as an assistant coach. After two seasons with the Cowboys, he was lured to Byrd by new Jackets head coach Alan Carter. It was a bold move by Suggs considering that the Byrd football program had just two winning seasons in the previous 15 years, and was coming off the worst decade in program history, which included a 30-game losing streak from 1983-86. Just how bad were things when Suggs arrived at Byrd, "We didn't have any usable equipment," he said. "When we got there all of our helmets were expired. Luckily, we had a generous booster who donated enough money for us to purchase new helmets and equipment." As the offensive coordinator, Suggs helped Byrd to two undefeated 10-0 regular seasons and two district titles in 1993 and '96. After finishing the 1997 season with a 9-2 record and a third district title, Carter resigned and moved into an administrative role at Byrd. In 1998, Suggs became the 20th head coach in program history.

The dean of area head coaches, Suggs, who's in his 31st year at the Line Avenue school, has built Byrd into one of the preeminent football programs in the area. His teams have become a reflection of their head coach carrying a reputation for being tough, physical and smart.

Byrd has won six district titles under Suggs, the most for one coach in program history. The Jackets have made the playoffs 14 of the last 15 years, the longest run in school history. In 2013, Suggs guided the Yellow Jackets to the Division I State Championship, losing a heartbreaker 23-22 to Archbishop Rummel. Suggs was named the 2013 Class 5A Coach of Year by the Louisiana Football Coaches Association. It was the second time he received the honor. For three consecutive seasons from 2013-15 Suggs' teams posted double-digit wins, which was a first in school history. When the Byrd defeated Parkway 31-13 in 2018, the victory gave Suggs 152 wins in his coaching career. That win moved him past Fair Park coaching legend F.H. Prendergrast for third place on the all-time Caddo-

Bossier wins list.

The 57-year-old Suggs and his wife Sandy, a native of Arnaudville, La., have two children, Cali, and Andrew, both of whom are Byrd alums. Cali is a teacher at South Highlands Elementary School in Shreveport, and Andrew works in the private sector.

SHREVEPORT'S GREAT LAKE

Most have heard of the Great Lakes of North America - Superior, Michigan, Huron, Erie, and Ontario. Shreveport has its own Great Lake, but it isn't a waterway, it's Byrd's sophomore quarterback Lake Lambert. Lambert, who's 6'2", 183 lbs., has been great in leading the Jackets to their first 7-0 start since 2014. Against Calvary, Lambert had eight carries for 45 yards and touchdown and was 4-for-7 passing for 63 yards. His biggest moment came in the fourth quarter after Calvary had cut the Jackets lead to 28-27. The sophomore signal caller orchestrated a 13-play, 66-yard drive that consumed nearly six and a half minutes of the final frame. An eight-yard Mitchell Ramsey touchdown run capped the drive to give Byrd a 35-27 lead, one that it would not relinquish. He led Byrd to its 28-10 win over Houghton, which snapped the Bucs three-game winning streak. Against Natchitoches Central, Lambert had six carries for 94 yards and scored two touchdowns. His first touchdown was a beautiful 33-yard scamper on an option keeper around the right side where he outran the Chiefs defense. On Byrd's next possession, Lambert had a 38-yard run to the Natchitoches six, setting up his one-yard TD run two plays later. Against East Ascension, Lambert threw for 112 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Jackets to a 27-20 victory over the Spartans. On the season, he has rushed for 349 yards, passed for 311 and has accounted for six touchdowns.

THIS BERRY IS SO SWEET

No berry has been sweeter for coach Mike Suggs and the Byrd Yellow Jackets than senior wingback William Berry. Berry had a career rushing night in helping lead Byrd to its 49-28 district win over Airline. He had nine carries for 135 yards and four touchdowns, all career highs. His four touchdown output against Airline was the most rushing TDs by a Byrd back since Charlie Barham had four against Calvary in 2018. Against East Ascension, Berry showed his versatility and speed as he gathered in a Lake Lambert pass and outran the Spartans' defense for a 70-yard touchdown, which proved to be the difference in the game. Through seven games, Berry has rushed for 394 yards and has scored 10 touchdowns. Last week, Berry was named the Player-of-the-Week by the Shreveport Times. Earlier this season, Berry was named to the LHSAA's Composite All-Academic Team, which covers all football playing classifications.

MITCHELL THE MAGNIFICENT

Junior wingback Mitchell Ramsey has been magnificent for the Byrd Yellow Jackets this season. In the season opener against Calvary, Ramsey had a 94-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. The 94-yard return was the fourth longest kickoff return for a touchdown in school history. Against East Ascension, "Mitchell the Magnificent" returned the opening kickoff 83 yards for a touchdown. He added a 50-yard return for a score against Airline. The last documented Byrd player to have two kick returns for touchdowns in a season was Frank Pernici in 1955. Ramsey rushed for a season-high 138 yards against the Spartans. He also had a 58-yard touchdown run and a 59-yard scamper in that game. Through seven games, Ramsey leads the team in rushing with 401 yards and with 712 all-purpose yards.

THE LAST TIME VS. SOUTHWOOD

Last year, Byrd's "Purple Swarm Defense" limited Southwood to just 11 yards of total offense, and the Jackets offense equaled their season-high of five rushing touchdowns in cruising to a 44-6 victory over the Cowboys.

THOMPSON THE TERRIFIC RETURNS TO FORM

Senior fullback back Venzell Thompson was terrific for Yellow Jackets last season. In 2019, Thompson rushed for 588 yards and scored five touchdowns. He averaged 84 rushing yards per game and 4.4 yards per carry. This season, Thompson's playing time has been limited due to nagging injuries. Against Captain Shreve, he returned to form with a game-high 80 rushing yards on 17 carries. He had his most productive game of the season against Natchitoches Central as he rushed for 105 yards on 24 carries and he scored Byrd's first touchdown on a 7-yard run. It was the first time since last year's upset of then No. 7 Airline that Thompson had rushed for over 100 yards. His 24 carries against the Chiefs equaled his career-high, which also came against Airline last year. The senior fullback also pulls double-duty as the Jackets' punter. So far this season, he's punted 15 times for a 38-yard average. He's six of his 15 punts downed inside the 20 yard line.

BROWN & MILETELLO DEMO COMPANY

Over the last three weeks, senior's Campbell Brown and Luke Miletello have been busy establishing a demolition company. The primary focus of the duo's business is blowing up opposing offenses. In the last three games, Brown and Miletello have combined for 46 tackles, including 37 solo stops, 6.5 sacks and 10 tackles-for-loss for 55 yards. Brown, a transfer from Captain Shreve, registered five sacks against Airline, which set the modern-day school record. The previous record was held by Ryan Anthony, who had 3.5 sacks in Byrd's 56-21 playoff victory over West Jefferson in 2011. Brown's five tackles-for-loss against Airline also topped Ryan Todd's previous season-high of four against Natchitoches Central. Miletello, an All-District performer in 2019, moved from defensive back to linebacker in 2020, and Brown, a defensive end, have helped Byrd's Purple Swarm Defense to limit opponents to just 14 points per game this season.

HERMES HAS IT

Senior safety Brayden Hermes has the "it" factor that coaches are always talking about. A starter since his sophomore season, Hermes is the leader of Byrd's Purple Swarm Defense. Last season, he had 39 tackles, one tackle-for-loss, one interception, three pass break-ups and three blocked kicks. He has picked up right where he left off last season. Through seven games, he is the team's leading tackler with 35 total tackles. In the opener against Calvary, Hermes broke through the Cavaliers line and blocked Thomas Murray's PAT attempt which kept Byrd in the lead at 28-27. Against East Ascension, Hermes intercepted a Spartan pass which allowed Byrd to run out the clock and win the game. Hermes has 140 career tackles and has moved into a tie for 10th place on the career tackles list. He's tied for eighth on the career interceptions list with four.

JUNIOR IS A SENIOR PLAYMAKER

Throughout his three-year varsity career, senior linebacker Makarios "Junior" Brown has been one of the Purple Swarm Defense's biggest playmakers. Last year, Brown led the team with 64 total tackles, including 55 solo stops. He had 13 tackles-for-loss for 49 yards, which was a career-high, and put him tied for tenth on the single-season leaders list. He also had two sacks for 48 yards, two fumble recoveries and a pass breakup. In his three varsity seasons, Brown has 129 total tackles, 25 tackles-for-loss and 5.5 sacks. His 25 tackles-for-loss ties him for fourth with Paul Dupee on the career leaders list. Against Captain Shreve, Brown made his first career interception. He has verbally committed to the Northwestern State Demons.

THE 2020 SCHEDULE, POLLS & MORE

Five of the eight opponents on Byrd's 2020 schedule made the playoffs last season. Haughton, Airline and Captain Shreve each had at least one Class 5A playoff win last season. Haughton made it to the semifinals, while Airline reached the quarterfinals. Shreve lost in the second round to West Monroe. In this week's Louisiana Sports Writer's Association poll, the Brother Martin Crusaders, who Byrd was originally supposed to play in the season opener, are the new No. 1-ranked team. Archbishop Rummel and Catholic of Baton Rouge are ranked second and third, respectively. Byrd is ranked ninth in this week's poll. Six of the 10 teams ranked in this week's LSWA poll, including four of the top five, are members of the LHSAA's Division I. That's five potential playoff opponents for the Jackets. Haughton, who's 6-1, was the only other District 1-5A team to receive votes (16) in this week's poll. Byrd moved up one spot to seventh in this week's GeauxPreps.com poll. The Jackets, who were ranked seventh in last week's CrescentCitySports.com poll, jumped one spot to sixth in this week's poll.

OVER THE AIRWAVES

Byrd football has been broadcast live on AM 1130 The Tiger for over 25 years. Charlie Cavell is in his 23rd season as the "Voice of the Byrd Yellow Jackets" calling the play-by-play action. Former Byrd defensive back Timmy Brown is the color analyst, while Dr. Kirk Martinson provides sideline reports. Former Byrd offensive lineman Carlton Holland and Marc Weddleton are the statisticians. Byrd Football can be heard on AM 1130 The Tiger or by visiting 1130thetiger.com and clicking on the Listen Live button. Smartphone users can download the 1130 The Tiger app and listen to Yellow Jackets Football anywhere. The in-stadium FM frequency for the Southwood game is 105.1 FM.

LHSAA DIVISION ONE PLAYOFF SCENARIO

With this being the final weekend of the 2020 regular season, the playoffs are only a week away. And, with Byrd being designated a "select" school, the Yellow Jackets will participate in the LHSAA's Division I Playoffs. Division I consists of 12 teams with the majority of those schools coming from the greater New Orleans and Baton Rouge metropolitan areas. Seven of the 12 Division I teams come from District 9-5A, the famed "Catholic League" in New Orleans. In addition to Byrd, Scotlandville Magnet and McKinley are the other public schools that are designated as "select" schools. The top four seeds receive a first round bye in the Div. I Playoffs. Heading into this final weekend, Brother Martin is the No. 1 seed. The Crusaders have a huge matchup this weekend against John Curtis Christian, who is currently sitting at No. 7. The Scotlandville Hornets are currently the No. 2 seed. The Hornets have cancelled their final two regular season games due to Covid concerns. Byrd is No. 3, while Catholic High of Baton Rouge is No. 4. The Bears jumped up to the No. 4 spot after beating previously top-ranked and undefeated Acadiana, 27-21, last Saturday. If Byrd beats Southwood on Thursday, the Jackets would secure one of those top four spots and a first round bye, then play a quarterfinal game in Shreveport during the first weekend of December. The LHSAA Prep Classic will be held in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on the weekend of Dec. 26-28, 2020.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that Byrd head coach Mike Suggs isn't the only Southwood alum on the Jackets' coaching staff? Safeties coach Wade Leone quarterbacked the Cowboys in the late 1990s before becoming a defensive back at Northwestern State University.
