A New Century Begins

The C.E. Byrd Yellow Jackets will begin a new century of football on Friday, Sept. 5, when they play host to the St. Amant Gators. St. Amant will be looking to avenge last year's 26-10 season-opening loss to Byrd. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Lee Hedges Stadium.

A Little About the Teams

The Byrd Yellow Jackets finished the 2024 season with a 9-4 overall record. The Jackets won two playoff games before losing 43-32 to the No. 2 seed Alexandria Senior High Trojans in the quarterfinals. Byrd finished with a 5-3 record in District 1-5A. Byrd lost 28 seniors from the 2024 team, including nine starters on offense and seven on defense as well as punter Jackson Cooper. Byrd lost 28-10 to Captain Shreve in last week's Jamboree. The St. Amant Gators finished the 2024 season with a 7-3 overall record and a 5-1 record in District 5-5A. St. Amant lost 28-20 to the Westgate Tigers in first round of the Non-Select Division I Playoffs. St. Amant defeated Assumption 27-6 in last week's Jamboree.

The Last Time Versus St. Amant

The Byrd Yellow Jackets began their 100th season of football by registering an impressive 26-10 road victory over the St. Amant Gators in a rain-soaked affair at The Pit. The Jackets amassed 386 rushing yards and three touchdowns, while the Purple Swarm Defense had four takeaways and limited the Gators to just 10 points. Wingback Quinton Hilliard rushed for 114 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Byrd ground attack. He also had a reception for 27 yards. A pair of sophomores, wingback Christian Maxie and fullback Collin Deere, had impressive debuts for Byrd. Maxie led all rushers with 154 yards, while Deere added 64 yards. Quarterback Harrison Ayres had 54 rushing yards and a touchdown. Asher Murray booted two field goals in the game.

The Series

This is the second meeting between the Byrd Yellow Jackets and St. Amant Gators. Byrd defeated St. Amant 26-10 in last year's season opener at The Pit. St. Amant High School is located southeast of Baton Rouge and just east of Gonzales, La. The Gators are members of the seven-team District 5-5A which includes: Denham Springs, Dutchtown, East Ascension, Live Oak, Prairieville and Walker. Prior to last year's opener, the only other times Byrd had faced a team from District 5-5A was against the East Ascension Spartans in the 2014 playoffs (W, 37-20) and the 2020 regular season (W, 27-20).

The Coaches

After Mike Suggs announced his retirement in May 2021, Byrd principal Jerry Badgley named Stacy Ballew as the 24th head coach in Yellow Jackets Football history. He earned his first victory as the Jackets' head coach in Byrd's 43-14 season-opening win over Huntington in 2021. Ballew has spent most of his life at the Line Avenue school. An All-District offensive lineman for coach Alan Carter, Ballew was a member of the Yellow Jackets from 1992-95. He was a sophomore on Byrd's 1993 District Championship team that went 10-1, and was a senior on the 1995 team that finished 8-3. After graduating in 1996, he returned to his alma mater in 1998, working as an assistant coach while attending LSU Shreveport. He earned a bachelor of science degree from LSUS in 2000. After a one-year hiatus, Ballew returned home in 2002 to become the running backs coach on Suggs' staff. In 2005, he would move over to the defensive side, where he'd remain for 16 seasons, coaching the linebackers. Promoted to defensive coordinator in 2009, Ballew spent 12 seasons coordinating the Purple Swarm Defense. He owns a 30-17 (.638) record in his previous four seasons as Byrd's head coach. The rest of the Byrd coaching staff includes: Wade Leone, offensive coordinator; Craig Harris, offensive line; Rahkeem Mitchell, running backs; Carlos Doss, wide receivers; Shimorye Hampton, defensive line; Jalen Bowers, linebackers; Benji Piazza, corner backs, and Ballew coaches the safeties. The freshmen coaches are Lee Wooldridge, Ronnie Buckingham and Tucker Gardner. Cordarius Wayne is the certified athletic trainer.

St. Amant is coached by David Oliver, who is in his 18th season as the head coach of the Gators football program. Oliver has compiled a 109-62 (.637) record in his previous 17 seasons at St. Amant. He previously served as an assistant coach for 13 years with the Gators. He was the Gators' offensive coordinator under then head coach David Swacker before being promoted to head coach.

Stacy Ballew is in his fifth season as the head coach of the C.E. Byrd Yellow Jackets. However, Ballew is no stranger to the purple and gold having spent three-fourths of his life, four as a student athlete and 22 as an assistant coach, at the Line Avenue school.

An All-District offensive lineman for coach Alan Carter, Ballew was a member of the Yellow Jackets from 1992-95. He was a sophomore on Byrd's 1993 District Championship team that went 10-1 and was a senior on the 1995 team that finished 8-3. After graduating in 1996, he returned to his alma mater in 1998, working as an assistant coach, while attending LSU Shreveport. He earned a bachelor of science degree from LSUS in 2000.

In 2001, Ballew left Shreveport and Byrd for a coaching position at Acton Junior High School in Granbury, Texas. His time in the Lone Star State was short lived as he returned home and to his alma mater in 2002 to become the running backs coach under head coach Mike Suggs.

In 2005, Ballew would move over to the defensive side of the football, where he'd remain for 16 seasons, to coach linebackers. Suggs promoted Ballew to defensive coordinator in 2009. He'd oversee some of the top Purple Swarm Defense's in school history.

Under his tutelage, the 2020 Purple Swarm Defense was one of the best in program history allowing just over 200 yards and 14 points a game. Byrd was particularly impressive against the run giving up just 80.3 yards per game and 3.0 yards per carry.

After Suggs retired in May 2021, Byrd principal Jerry Badgley named Ballew the 24th head coach in Yellow Jackets football history.

The 47-year-old Ballew has been married to the former Jennifer Lord for over 20 years. The couple has twins, LeighAnne and Jackson, who graduated from Byrd in 2022.

2025 Season Preview

Tradition, Tenacity, and a New Season of Promise

As the relentless sun pours over Shreveport in late summer, stadium seats begin to fill once more with a sense of renewal and expectation. The 2025 C.E. Byrd High School Yellow Jackets return to the gridiron, carrying with them the weight of a storied legacy and the unyielding drive to carve their mark in Louisiana high school football. With a blend of returning talent, new faces, and a coaching staff steeped in experience, the Yellow Jackets are poised for a campaign brimming with intrigue, ambition, and the unmistakable hum of Friday night lights.

Recap of 2024: A Foundation for the Future

Last season, Byrd's journey was one of adversity and grit. A string of hard-fought wins led to the Yellow Jackets' deep playoff run, where their signature multi-option attack challenged even the most disciplined defenses. While the playoff run fell short of state glory, the team's determination never wavered, setting the stage for a 2025 squad that enters with both unfinished business and invaluable lessons in hand.

The '25 Jackets will quickly have to figure out how to replace nine offensive starters, including four linemen, and a 1,000-yard rusher in fullback Desmond Simmons. Defensively, Byrd does return five starters, including standout defensive lineman Ian Gray and versatile safety Ja'Cari Williams. The linebacking corps will be the biggest question marks due to the loss of three seniors, including Sam Greer, who set the single-season tackles record. Greer was a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame scholar athlete as well as a Composite Academic All-State selection after finishing his four years at Byrd with a 4.69 grade point average.

Coaching Staff: Leadership Forged in Tradition

Head coach Stacy Ballew returns for his fifth season, bringing with him strength, toughness and a commitment to the core values that have long defined Byrd football: discipline, physicality, and adaptability. Surrounded by an experienced cohesive group of assistant coaches, five of whom are Byrd alums, their message is clear: success is built not overnight, but by hard work and dedication.

Offense: The Engine of Persistence

The Yellow Jackets' offensive identity remains rooted in the triple-option, a system that demands intelligence, patience, and unity from its participants. The biggest task falls squarely upon the shoulders of offensive line coach Craig Harris, who has to replace four starters (five if you include the tight end), including All-District and All-City performer Mason Coenen. The lone returning starter is senior guard Jacob Martin (6'3", 295). Senior Mason Kinley (5'9", 191), who saw some action at center last season, moves out to left tackle alongside Martin. Junior Mohanad Wadi (5'6", 259) is projected to take over at center, while a pair of juniors Lewis Jones (5'10", 226) and Trenton Morris (6'0", 283) are expected to line up at right guard and right tackle, respectively. Former wide receiver senior Duncan Rowe (6'1", 183) moves inside to take over the tight end spot.

Wide receiver Alex Schoonover is gone leaving junior Logan Carlson (5'10", 154) and senior Henry Peacock (5'7", 150), a converted defensive back, to compete for the starting job. Schoonover had 12 receptions for 221 yards and four touchdowns, including a game winner against Huntington in 2024. As usual, the focus will be on the Byrd backfield, where a quartet of juniors are expected to lead the Jackets' ground attack. Quarterback Jackson Davis (6'1", 166) takes over for two-year starter Harrison Ayres. Davis, who also plays baseball, possesses a strong arm and gives offensive coordinator Wade Leone the ability to throw the ball when opposing defenses are stacking the tackle box to try and stop the run. However, the biggest expectation for Davis will be to take care of the football and distribute it to the trio of talented backs behind him.

Fullback Collin Deere, who started the '24 season opener against St. Amant as well as four other games, will try to replace the 1,033-yard season registered by Desmond Simmons. Deere (6'1", 201), who rushed for 743 yards and six touchdowns in 2024, has the physical makeup and running style of a traditional service academy fullback.

Most of the focus will be on returning wingback Christian Maxie, whose blend of quickness, speed and elusiveness made him one of the district's most reliable ground-gainers in 2024. Maxie (5'10", 181) finished the '24 season with 991 rushing yards and eight touchdowns and was a First-Team All-District selection. Peter Santiago (5'10", 183) saw action in five games last season rushing for 128 yards, two touchdowns and averaged 9.1 yards per carry.

There's no doubting the talent and ability of the Byrd's quartet of junior backs but having to replace the productivity (37 total TDs) of Ayres, Simmons and wingback Quinton Hilliard (13 rushing and two receiving TDs) is a very tall order.

Defense: Stoutness Meets Speed

Defensively, Ballew will be trying to replace the production of defensive end Darrel Cottonham, Jr., as well as linebackers Sam Greer and Ethan Sipes. However, returning senior starter Ian Gray (6'1", 248) as well as seasoned veterans senior Tayvious Washington (6'1", 290) and junior Kamerun Anderson (5'10", 215) gives the Purple Swarm Defense a solid core up front. Senior Javion Johnson (5'10", 237) and junior Clay Atkinson (5'7", 197) are penciled in as the defensive ends. They will have to try and replace the production (54 combined tackles and 20 tackles-for-loss) from All-District, All-Metro, All-Prep end Cottonham, Jr., (Louisiana Christian) and Rhyan Perry.

The biggest area of concern for Ballew, who's also the defensive coordinator, and linebackers coach Jalen Bowers is how do you replace the likes of Sam Greer (All-District, All-City MVP, All-Metro, All-Prep MVP), who set the single-season tackles record with 136, Ethan Sipes and Kian Fox. That task will fall upon Madden Cromer (6'0", 183) at middle linebacker, junior Conrad Hilliard (6'2", 196) at weak side linebacker and junior Charlie Sepulvado (5'8", 164) at the hybrid "buck" linebacker spot. The secondary has the most experience (45 combined games played) of any position group on the defense. Senior safety Ja'Cari Williams (5'10", 193, All-District, All-City) is a playmaker who can play near the line of scrimmage or on the back end. Senior Abram Anderson (5'10", 179) is expected to man the other safety spot opposite of Williams. Seniors Azariae Barfield (6'2", 182) and Cameron Williams (5'9", 134) gives the Purple Swarm Defense experienced veterans at the corner spots.

Special Teams: The Hidden Advantage

No preview of the Yellow Jackets would be complete without mentioning the crucial, often overlooked special teams' unit, and that begins with place kicking. Byrd has a long and storied history of great kickers - David Hankins (Ole Miss), John Shaughnessy (Northwestern State), Scotty Roblow (Northwestern State), Abram Murray (California) to name just a few.

Senior Asher Murray (5'11", 176), the younger brother of Abram, is poised to be the greatest kicker in the 121-year history of Yellow Jackets' football. A First-Team All-State selection last year, Murray was the first kicker in program history to kick three 50+ yard field goals (56, 50, 52) in a season as well as in a career. According to Lee Hiller of the Shreveport-Bossier Advocate, Murray was the first to accomplish that feat in northwest Louisiana football history. Against Benton, Murray booted a 56-yard field goal to give Byrd a 17-14 lead over the Tigers at halftime. His 56-yarder tied a school, city and parish-es record held by Shaughnessy. Murray set the single-season record for made field goals with 12, and entering this season, sits in fourth place on the career made field goals list, six behind Shaughnessy. He recently committed to Texas A&M.

Coach Ballew said Murray will also be the Jackets' punter, assuming the duties left vacant by Jackson Cooper, who averaged 36.1 yards per punt in '24. Hilliard is expected to take over the long snapping duties, while Peacock returns as the holder on place kicks. Gone is James Logan who handled the bulk of the return duties last year (19.5 AKR, 9.3 APR). Maxie, Barfield and Ja'Cari Williams will handle kick and punt returns in '25.

JACKET JARGON

Key Games and Rivalries

As always, the Yellow Jackets' schedule is peppered with critical matchups that will test their mettle. The season-opening non-district tilt against the St. Amant Gators looms large and is likely to reveal a lot about the '25 Byrd Yellow Jackets. After the opener, Byrd jumps right into District 1-5A play with a trip to the piney woods of east Bossier Parish to battle the Haughton Buccaneers. Every team in District 1-5A will be trying to take the crown from the Airline Vikings, who feature LSU wide receiver commit Kenneth Darby. Evangeli's Peyton "Pop" Houston and Benton's Malachi Zeigler are two of the top-ranked quarterbacks in the Class of 2027.

District showdowns with Parkway, Huntington and Natchitoches Central carry playoff implications and promise to be hard-fought affairs. The much-anticipated "Backyard Brawl" against the Captain Shreve Gators in week 10 is circled on every fan's calendar. A bitter rivalry that never fails to draw a packed crowd and deliver drama in abundance. It's one of the most unique high school rivalries in the state of Louisiana. Last season's encounter went down to the wire, and this year's rematch is expected to be no different, with city pride and postseason positioning on the line.

Players to Watch

Christian Maxie (WB, Jr.): Can he continue the big-play, game-changing runs he had last season? Collin Deere (FB, Jr.): A tough, hard-nosed runner in the style of a traditional service academy full-back, he'll be expected to earn the hard yardage between the tackles and keep the chains moving. Asher Murray (PK, Sr.): Murray has been dubbed "one of the best kickers in the country" by Louisiana Football Magazine editor Lee Brecheen. The Texas A&M commit is poised to rewrite all of the place kicking records in the 121-year history of Yellow Jackets football (101st of C.E. Byrd). Murray is also one of the best all-around athletes on the team having seen plenty of action at quarterback as a sophomore. Ian Gray (DL, Sr.): The defensive line will be heart of the defense and Gray is the unbridled leader of that line. Ja'Cari Williams (FS, Sr.): A very versatile player, Williams is the anchor in the secondary, always around the ball at critical moments.

Season Outlook: The Road Ahead

The 2025 season finds the C.E. Byrd Yellow Jackets at a crossroads of tradition and opportunity. With a roster lacking in experience but hungry for achievement, and a coaching staff as invested as ever, expectations always remain high on Line Avenue. The offense will rely on methodical drives and ball control, while the defense aims to create chaos and capitalize on turnovers. Success, as always, will be measured not just in wins and losses, but in the development of young athletes, the forging of lifelong bonds, and the embrace of a community's pride. The battle-tested seniors will aim to leave a legacy, while ascending underclassmen will strive to seize their moment.

Final Thoughts

As the "City of Byrd" closed the book on its centennial celebration and as the 101st season begins, the C.E. Byrd Yellow Jackets are ready to write the next chapter in their storied history. With a challenging schedule, an evolving roster, and unwavering support, 2025 promises to be a season of both trials and triumphs. Fans and foes alike can expect football played the Byrd way—fast, physical, and always with heart.

As opening night approaches, anticipation swells and traditions are rekindled. Whatever the outcome, one thing is certain: the legacy of C.E. Byrd football endures, and in 2025, the Yellow Jackets are ready to take flight once more.

Where Are They Now?

In addition to former Jacket quarterback Jeremy Wilburn coaching at Captain Shreve there are a few more former Byrd players serving as head coaches in the high school ranks. Nicholas Peoples, who holds the career interceptions record (10) at Byrd, is the head coach at Green Oaks. Former Jacket running back Chadwick Lewis is the head coach at Little Rock Southwest High School in Arkansas. Christopher Wilson, who played at Byrd from 2009-11, is the head coach of the North Webster Knights.

Scouting St. Amant

St. Amant started the 2024 season 2-2, (it had a game against Cecilia cancelled), but then the Gators won five straight games to finish the regular season with a 7-2 overall record and a 5-1 record in district play. Unfortunately, the Gators lost 28-20 to the Westgate Tigers in the first round of the Non-Select Division I Playoffs. That loss doesn't diminish the fact that St. Amant has racked up 17 wins over the last two seasons. With two-year starting quarterback Cooper Babin as well as wide receivers Jermichael Millien and Kaven Taylor returning, veteran head coach David Oliver looks to continue the Gators' recent success. St. Amant beat Assumption 27-6 in last week's Jamboree.

Statewide Polls

The defending Select Div. I Champion Edna Karr Cougars were the No. 1 ranked team in the first Louisiana Sports Writer's Association. This season, Crescent City Sports is releasing its polls according to playoff divisions. CCS has the Karr Cougars as the top ranked team in Select Division I, while the Central Wildcats were the No. 1 team in Non-Select Division I. GeauxPreps has the Cougars ranked first in its preseason poll. The Byrd Yellow Jackets were ranked eighth in the CCS Select Division I poll. The Evangel Eagles (11) and the Airline Vikings (9) each garnered votes in the LSWA poll.

Once a Citizen, Always a Citizen

C.E. Byrd High School is Shreveport's oldest public high school, and is often referred to as the "City of Byrd." 2025 marks the 101st season of Byrd Yellow Jackets Football. The Byrd Alumni Association boasts that it is one of the largest alumni organizations in the nation. In addition to head coach Stacy Ballew (1996), there are six other members of the coaching staff who are citizens of the City of Byrd and played football for the Yellow Jackets. They are as follows: Craig Harris (1997), Ronnie Buckingham (2004), Rahkeem Mitchell (2009), Jalen Bowers (2013), Carlos Doss (2017) and Shimorye Hampton (2017).

Alumni Report

Former Byrd Yellow Jackets in the collegiate ranks in 2025 are kicker Abram Murray at the University of California, Berkeley, offensive lineman Carson Bruno at Texas Christian University, wide receiver Jackson Dufrene at Nicholls State University, defensive lineman Darell Cottonham, Jr., at Louisiana Christian University, linebacker Makarios "Junior" Brown at Southern Arkansas University, punter/kicker Jackson Cooper at Lamar University, and linebacker Devon Strickland at Centenary College.

Over the Airwaves

Byrd football has been broadcast live on The Tiger (KWKH) for over 30 years. Charlie Cavell is in his 28th season behind the microphone as the "Voice of the Byrd Yellow Jackets" calling the play-by-play action. Dr. Kirk Martinson is the color analyst, while former Yellow Jacket defensive back Dominique Wilson provides sideline reports. Marc Weddleton and Chad Ardoin are the statisticians. Byrd Football can be heard on AM 1130 and FM 103.3 The Tiger or by visiting 1130thetiger.com and clicking on the Listen Live button. By downloading the 1130 The Tiger app fans can listen to Byrd Football anywhere in the world.

Who Was Lee Hedges?

Lee Hedges Stadium is named in honor of legendary football coach Lee Hedges, who passed away on July 9, 2023, at the age of 93. Who was Lee Hedges? Lee Hedges dedicated his life to teaching and mentoring young people in Shreveport. He is best known for guiding the 1973 Captain Shreve Gators to a perfect 14-0 record and the Class 4A State Championship. However, Shreve was not the only Shreveport school where he was successful. A three-sport star at Fair Park, Hedges would begin his legendary coaching career at arch-rival Byrd as the Jackets' head coach in 1956. He led Byrd to the state title game that first season, losing to the Istrouma Indians, 14-7. After four years on Line Avenue, Hedges moved to newly-opened Woodlawn in 1960. He had tremendous success with the Knights, leading them to the 1965 state championship game. Hedges' 217 career wins are the most for any coach in the history of Caddo-Bossier football.

A Look Ahead

The C.E. Byrd Yellow Jackets will open up District 1-5A play on Friday, Sept. 12, against the Haughton Buccaneers. Due to a generous donation from former Buc and current Dallas Cowboys quarterback Dak Prescott, Haughton's Harold Harlan Stadium has undergone major renovations. A new turf field and a new video board are just a couple of the major improvements at the newly renamed Dak Prescott Field at Harold Harlan Stadium. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m. between the pines.
